Dúnong: UP Diliman Journal of Student Research 2022 Call for Papers

Description

Dúnong: UP Diliman Journal of Student Research is an open-access journal of peer-reviewed research produced primarily by students of UP Diliman and secondarily by faculty with research related to student affairs and welfare. It aims to publish the best of emergent and interdisciplinary student research in UP Diliman and to introduce young researchers to the editorial process toward cultivating an ethical culture of critique.

Information for Authors

Who may submit?

The call for submissions is open to:

- Undergraduate and graduate students of UP Diliman currently enrolled at the time of submission
- UP Diliman alumni who graduated within two (2) years of their graduation date on the day of submission, whose work was produced during their undergraduate or graduate years

UP Diliman faculty or staff may also submit papers that specifically discuss topics on UP student affairs, UP education, UP environment, or similar themes.

Dunong accepts single and multiple authorships. In cases of mixed authorship wherein one or more of the writers do not fall under the categories above, the submission will still be accepted as long as the main author is affiliated in the aforementioned contexts.

Guidelines for Submissions

1. Dunong accepts papers on topics across all disciplines. Papers on interdisciplinary research are encouraged and prioritized.
2. Submissions must be in English or Filipino, 3,000-7,000 words in length, Times New Roman 12, double-spaced, and documented in CMS Notes-Bibliography or Author-Date format. Works must be saved in *.doc or *.docx, and images sent separately in *.jpeg or *.png.
3. Contributors are requested to accomplish the submission form in full, but to remove information from their manuscript that may identify the author, such as name, student number, course and college, etc.
4. Authors have the responsibility to secure permissions for copyrighted material that they use or borrow for their papers.
